Introduction

Throughout my life I have been intrigued by the origins of our family name and, by association, the identity of our Grandfather on Dad's side. I was too young to interrogate Dad about such matters and, I suspect, the identity of his father was never revealed to him. The reasons for this may become apparent in the following pages. I was fortunate enough to sit down with my Mum and document her story and this process did not reveal our Grandfather's identity. The practice of piecing together our genealogy has been a journey spanning many years, but now I am in a position to document a complete picture of our family lineage.

This book would not have been possible without the diligence and hard work of my cousin Helen Mefflin. Her genealogical pursuits have resulted in a plethora of information, including key documents that enabled us to determine who our biological Grandfather is. Her efforts also allowed us to confirm the origin of our surname, which has mystified us, and me in particular, for many a year.

With the information provided by Helen, this book outlines the family history relating to the Forry and Ernest family names.

I will be forever indebted to Helen for her hard work, persistence and determination.

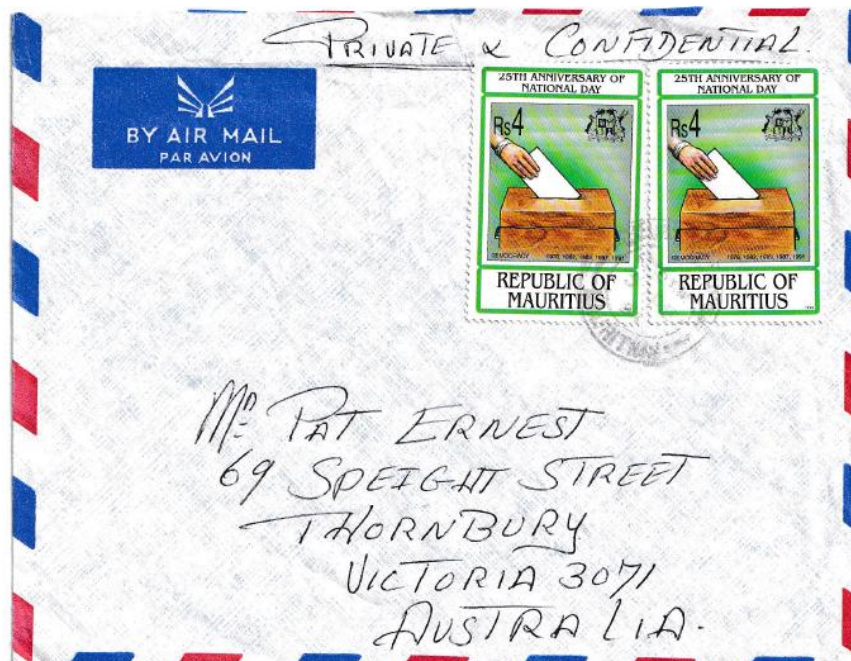

Initial genealogy searches – 1994

In 1994 I embarked on a journey to establish the identity of my paternal grandfather (Harold's father) and the origins of our family name Ernest. To my disappointment at the time my efforts reached a stalemate. I even engaged the services of an accredited genealogist who also struck an impasse.

I then wrote to Dad's cousin Dany Latapie in Mauritius, in an effort to reveal the identity my grandfather. Dany wrote back to me with a wonderful letter outlining very valuable family information, but alas she was unable to reveal the identity of my grandfather. Her gloriously penned letter is displayed in the following pages, together with a 1994 letter from the Surrey Births, Deaths and Marriages Office.

My genealogical pursuits ended at this time.

11th February 94,

Dear Pat,

I have well received your letter and with a great pleasure I will help you for the informations you requested. But you will excuse me if my english is not very good, I don't want any help from anyone to write this letter because a secret family may stay confidential. I hope you will understand me.

All the informations I may be able to provide you is only on your grand'mother because I have never seen your grand father, because he never came in Mauritius.

Lydie, second daughter of GASTON LATAPIC and AURÉLIE D'ENNIANNE, married a Sergeant - Chef of the British Army: HARRY DE BURG. after the wedding she went to ENGLAND with her husband, she was 18 years old. She had a daughter in England, her name was Elisabeth MARY (Betty) - The young couple did not live happily together with a naughty mother-in-law, always at their side, so they separated or divorced, I don't know exactly. She had a second husband: M^r ERNEST. I don't know if they were married or did they live together.

without marriage, they had a little boy: Harold and I suppose that your grand father's name was also Harold, but I'm not sure, because all these things happened when I was not yet born. I borned when your father was 20 years old. So I tell you things I heard. And I don't know if the couple was happy. Your Grand mother Lydie lost her second husband. She was alone in a great Country (Loughan) which was not hers with a five years old child, so she decided to return in her family group in Mauritius, near her mother and sisters to found again love and affection and your father grew up in Mauritius.

You see Pat, genealogy is not easy to do without documents, and if I go to the archives it will take many times, so I give you these informations first and for the dates I'll try to give it to you later.

It is not a question of money, you will have nothing to reimburse me. It is a great pleasure for me to help you. I enclose a plan of our family tree, you can have an idea of every member since my grand mother.

Give my regards to Jan and your mother.

I hope to hear from you soon and don't hesitate to ask me any question, if I know something I'll let you know.

Sincerely yours.

Dany

Origin of the Ernest family name

To understand the origins of our family name, it would be prudent to provide some background genealogical material in order to provide context.

Marie Lydie Latapie (Harold's mother)

Lydie Latapie, my grandmpther, was born in Mauritius in 1897. She was one of six daughters born to Joseph and Aurielle (nee De'Emianee) Latapie.

In order, the daughters were born;

Marie Carmen Latapie - 1894

Marie Lydie Latapie - 1897

Marie Raymonde Latapie - 1899

Madeline Marie Latapie - 1901

Marie Hilda Latapie - 1904

Marie France Latapie - 1908

Henry Vernon de Burgh (Lydie's husband)

Henry was born at or around 1880 in Stirling, Stirlingshire, Scotland to Robert and Amy (nee Marshall) de Burgh.

He was the eldest of six children;

Henry Vernon de Burgh - 1880

Mary de Burgh - 1883

Frank de Burgh - 1885

Ivy de Burgh - 1886

Hubert Ernest de Burgh - 1889

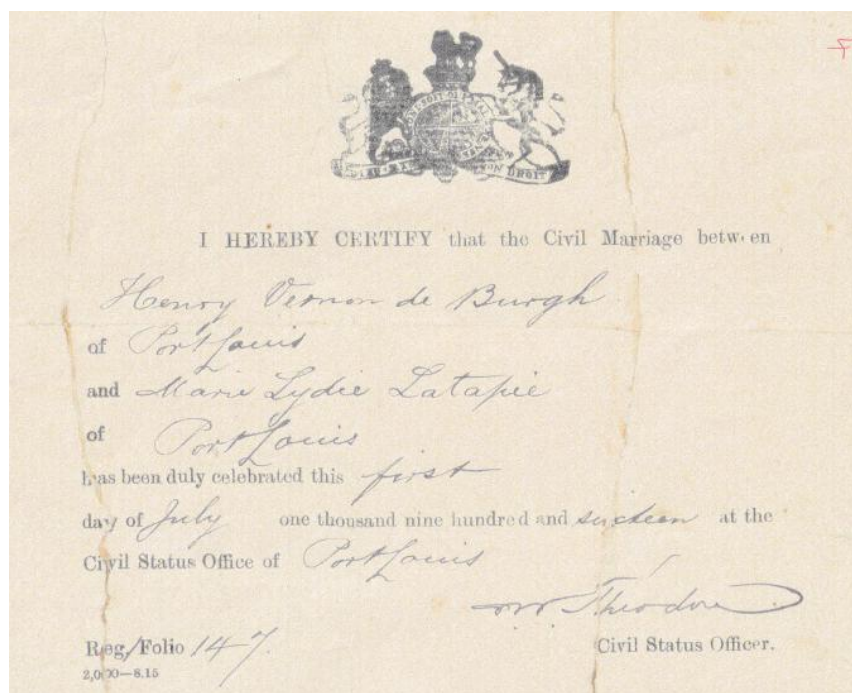

Robert Stanley de Burgh - 1892

The circumstances regarding Henry's presence in Mauritius are unclear. While in Mauritius Henry met Lydie and fell in love.

At the age of 19, Lydie and Henry were married in the Cathedral of St Louis in Mauritius.

The couple then relocated to Scotland to live with Henry's mother Amy. Dany's letter reveals that Lydie's mother in-law was interfering and made life difficult for the couple. During this time Lydie fell pregnant and gave birth to a daughter, Mary Aurielle Elizabeth de Burgh. Her exact birth date is unknown but we can confirm that she was baptised on the 17th of June, 1917 in the Parish of Farnham in the County of Surrey. Sadly the little girl suffered chronic illness and passed away on April 4, 1919.

I suspect that their marriage, while living in Scotland, was fast becoming untenable so the couple decided to move to London and try to rekindle their marriage, well away from Henry's interfering mother in-law Amy de Burgh.

The marriage certificate of Henry Vernon de Burgh and Marie Lydie Latapie on the 1st of July, 1916.

Unfortunately for them their difficulties continued and they decided to separate. Lydie took up residence at the Dolphin Hotel in Southampton. It was there that Lydie met a U.S. Serviceman by the name of William Frank Forry. Clearly this relationship blossomed, as opposed to the difficulties she endured with Henry. I believe that this liaison was at or around late 1918.

The Dolphin Hotel in Southampton

William Frank Forry and his squadron were shipped back to the United States on the 1st of December, 1918 as their war service had concluded. Unbeknowns to him, Lydie was pregnant with his child. That child was Harold - my father - who was born on August 4, 1919.

Naturally I pursued our family name Ernest in my genealogical pursuits but unfortunately my efforts led to a dead end. It was Helen Mefflin who made the crucial breakthrough by revising her search spectrum from Harold Ernest to Harold de Burgh, his mother Lydia's married name. At long last Helen had found the key to unlock the access to our family mystery and lineage.

The Ernest name was a conundrum that baffled me for many a year. It was with the De Burgh name that Helen was able to access a wealth of significant documents that ultimately revealed that Harold's father was indeed;

WILLIAM FRANK FORRY

William was an American serviceman and a Cook and served in the Great War (World War 1) in the 377th Aero Squadron. William is from Berks County, Pennsylvania, USA.

All of the documents that Helen accessed around Lydia Latapie/De Burgh and Harold Ernest did not reveal the identity of Dad's father. It was when she was able to access the divorce documents between Henry De Burgh and Lydia De Burgh that the true identity of Harold Ernest's father was revealed. The following documents detail Willaim Frank Forry's identity.

I believe I have solved the mystery as to how Harold's surname became Ernest. It was Lydie's initial intention to name him Harold Ernest de Burgh - Ernest being his middle name. Not long after discovering that she was pregnant, Henry had discovered what had transpired between Lydie and William and then filed for divorce. The petition for divorce was on the grounds of adultery, citing that Lydia was pregnant and that he was not the father. He then went on to reveal that there was a third party and that the father of the child was William F Forrey. This revelation is quite clearly documented in the divorce pages displayed in this text. There is no record within the divorce papers where Lydie, the Respondent, disputes these assertions. There can be no mistake - Willam Frank Forrey is our grandfather.

One can only speculate as to the difficulties and challenges Lydie faced in this period 1916 to 1918. World War 1 was well underway and in fact raging and the casualties were in the millions. She would have felt very much alone and isolated in a large country.

This birth registration document confirms my theory that the Ernest name is in fact Dad's middle name and that his mother Lydie decided to erase De Burgh from his title, perhaps due to a toxic divorce.

Timeline of William Forry's army service;

William joined the US Army on December 20, 1917 and was in the 832 Squadron.

He was moved to the 377th squadron and was shipped overseas on the RMS Carmania on the 3rd of May, 1918, departing from New York.

He became a cook on the 1st of September, 1918.

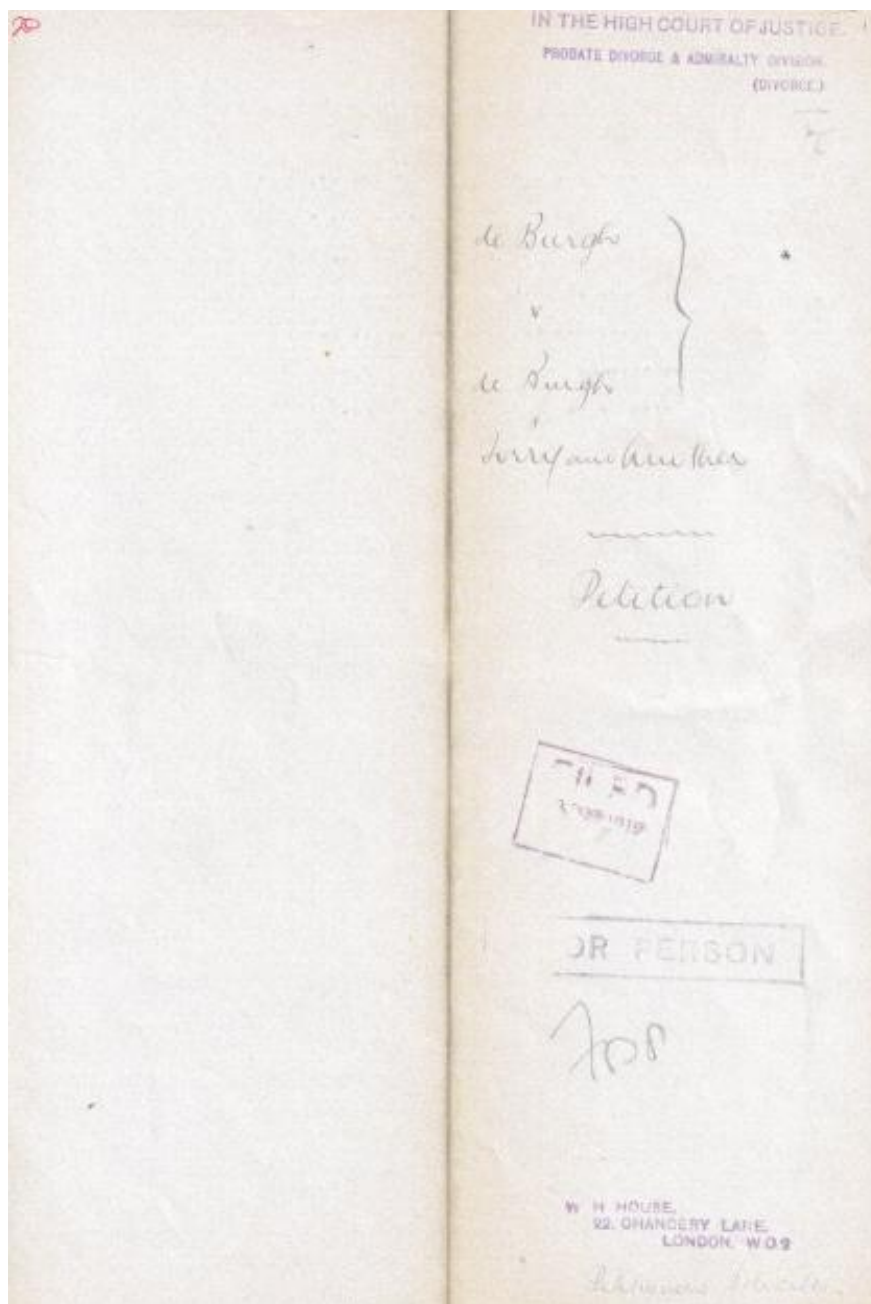

He left England on the 1st of December, 1918 on the RMS Adriatic and arrived in New York on the 11th of December, 1918

He was discharged on the 30th of December, 1918 from Garden city Long Island NY.

Henry de Burgh started Divorce proceedings in 1919, citing adultery as Lydia was Pregnant and named as the father. Harold was born on the 4th of August, 1919.

These dates confirm that Private William Franklin Forry would have been unaware that Lydie was pregnant.

The following pages display the divorce documents between Henry de Burgh and Lydie de Burgh.

Marie Lydie Latapie

It is now important to realise that the Ernest surname started with our father Harold. In some way it makes our name that little bit more special and unique. The title of my autobiography is "The Importance of Being"...(Patrick Ashley Ernest). I believe that, based on these current revelations, my title has more credence, as we are first generation Ernest's; we are the custodians of this name and I am proud of the way we have led our lives and carried this name. It is now up to current and future generations to follow suit.

We would constantly ruminate that other Ernest's across the globe, and in particular Mauritius, were in someway connected to us at some point a time long ago. But alas, no. We have no biological link to any Ernest's whatsoever.

What we need to accept, and indeed process is that our biological name is Forry. However, from my perspective, Dad was and always will be Harold Ernest.

Our Father, who art in Heaven,
Harold (Ernest) be thy name.
